WILMINGTON HOUSING AUTHORITY RECOGNITION AWARD CEREMONY

On October 25, 2023, the Wilmington Housing Authority (WHA) Resident Services Team hosted their Recognition Award Ceremony in the recently renovated Park View Apartments community room.

This celebration was the first since COVID-19, and over 100 awardees, community partners, and guests attended the celebration to honor our WHA Legacy Changers. WHA Legacy Changers are former residents that've achieved their goal of homeownership through participation in the WHA Section 32 Homeownership Program.

WHA Assistant Housing Manager, Tracey Childress, coordinated the ambiance, which included dinner, decorations, and music provided by DJ Smoove. WHA Executive Director, Ray Fitzgerald, and Resident Services Chief, Irmina Brown-Williams, were all smiles as they celebrated the many achievements of our WHA Legacy Changers. During their speeches, Irmina and Ray encouraged residents to continue making their goals a reality and thanked the community partners for their commitment to WHA residents.

Stand By Me Financial Coach, Marilyn Ramirez, ABC Consulting's Reba Businsky, Meridan Bank Mortgage Loan Expert Realty, Damian Wing, and EXP Realty Real Estate Professional, Sharon Stewart, were several of the partners recognized during the event.

WHA Legacy Changer, Terrell Copeland, shared her journey from renter and Administrative Assistant to homeowner and entrepreneur of a skincare product line, Angelia. During her speech, she thanked Ray Fitzgerald who has been instrumental in all her successes by believing in her ability to achieve and consistently encouraging her through the journey. Mrs. Copeland also thanked Irmina Brown-Williams, whose persistence in the commitment to encourage WHA residents in the rewards of homeownership was instrumental in her joining WHA Section 32 Homeownership program.

Mrs. Copeland also stated that when she looks back at her path to self-sufficiency, she realizes her success began with a change of mindset and perspective to be able to move forward. She realized a change of mindset was necessary multiple times to continue forward and see the strength others saw in her.

In addition to Terrell Copeland, there were four other WHA Legacy Changers in attendance, including the first-person to complete the program in 2010, Leola Lightfoot, Yolanda Durant, Mary Matthews, and Wallace Tabron.

The WHA Resident Services team intensely works with participants to help them accomplish their goals. Resident Services is proud of the hard work and dedication of their clients, community partners, and WHA Staff that also support clients to self-sufficiency.

YOUTHBUILD PARTICIPANTS THRIVING IN DIVERSE WORK EXPERIENCES

Wilmington Housing Authority is thrilled to highlight the remarkable journeys of our YouthBuild Program participants as they immerse themselves in valuable work experiences. Here is a glimpse into their accomplishments for construction and document imaging roles.

Several of our YouthBuild participants, Brandon Gardner, Imani Oakley, Ky'Shon Smith, Anthony Purdie, Saihaan Turner, Christopher Kelley have enthusiastically embraced hands-on learning in the construction field. Engaging real-world construction projects, they have not only developed practical skills but have also contributed to building a stronger community. These young individuals are proving that dedication and hard work pave the way for success.

Simultaneously, Annabelle Cain and Grisellys Marrero-Rosa have taken on roles as Document Specialists, gaining insights into the administrative side of public housing industry. Learning essential office tasks, communication skills, and project coordination, they're acquiring a versatile skill set that opens doors to a wide range of career opportunities.

One standout participant, Nayleh Martin, has enrolled in the Phlebotomy Technician Certificate Program at Delaware Technical Community College. This strategic move not only aligns with Nayleh's personal interest but also opens doors to a rapidly growing sector in the healthcare industry. Nayleh's career path is also a testament to the diverse pathways YouthBuild provides, allowing all participants to tailor their educational journeys to their aspirations.

These success stories are a small scope of the impact of the WHA YouthBuild Program. Through tailored case management, job placement, support, and access to educational resources, participants are not just acquiring skills, they're crafting a foundation for a brighter future.

As we celebrate these achievements, we also look forward to more success stories as we continue our mission to recruit and empower additional participants in New Castle County Delaware. Together, we are building a community of skilled motivated individuals ready to shape their destinies.

Visit <https://whadelaware.org/about-wha/employment-opportunities-and-training-programs/youthbuild> for more information on applying or referring participants for the YouthBuild Program,
